To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1

Special Condition # 15: You shall participate in the home confinement program for 120 days. You shall abide by all the requirements of the program, which will include electronic monitoring or other location verification system. You shall pay all or part of the costs of the program based upon your ability to pay. You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment, education, religious services, medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, court-ordered obligations, or other activities as pre-approved by the supervising officer.

Supporting Evidence: The offender was advised that while on home confinement she would need to have a telephone and would need to contact the probation office and leave a message every time she left her residence and when she returned. The defendant's telephone has been disconnected since August 27, 2010. Telephone calls to the residence have been placed on August 27, 28, 30, 31 and September 1 and 6, 2010. The telephone continues to be disconnected. Ms. Cook has made no effort to contact the probation office regarding the telephone disconnection. From the beginning of home confinement, the offender has been inconsistent in calling in when she would leave and return to her residence. She has not made contact regarding her whereabouts since August 27, 2010.
